By plane

The Pisa International Galileo Galilei Airport is on the outskirts of the town, approximately 6 km from the Institute. To reach the Institute, it is probably most convenient to take a taxi. Otherwise, less than 400 meters from the terminal there is the stop of the LAM Verde line (L/V), in Via Sant'Agostino, you have to take the bus (direction Via di Pratale) and getting off at the stop VOLPI, (40' total average journey time) Tickets are on sale within the airport. Timetables are here.

There is also a shuttle service "Pisa Mover" that connects the airport to the Pisa Centrale railway station, making an intermediate stop at the San Giusto Aurelia station, There are two shuttles in operation, which run from 6 am to midnight 365 days a year. The average journey time is 5 minutes. The AIRPORT STATION is located in front of the port services building on the edge of the City-Gate area. From the Pisa Centrale railway station you have to take the bus of the LAM Verde line (L/V) (direction Via di Pratale) and getting off at the stop VOLPI (20'). Tickets are on sale outside the railway station; timetables are here.

By train

The railway station is located on the main line from Turin to Rome. There is also a very frequent train service to and from Florence. Ferrovie dello Stato provides a train schedule and booking service.

The railway station is approximately 5 km from the Institute. To reach the Institute you can take bus LAM Verde (L/V) (direction Via di Pratale) getting off at the first stop in Via Volpi, beside the CNR Area. Tickets are on sale outside the railway station; timetables are here. Taxi service is also available.

By car

Pisa is near the intersection of two highways: A12 north-south (Sestri Levante - Livorno) and A11 east-west (Pisa - Florence). Informations about italian highways can be found here.

From motor way A12 (green signs) Exit Pisa centro, then follow the high way (blue signs) to Florence up to the Exit Pisa Nord Est and follow the road signs to the Area CNR, about 10 min. from the motor way exit. You can plan your route using Google maps. Parking is available.

By city bus

You have to take the bus LAM Verde (L/V) (direction Via di Pratole) getting off at the first stop VOLPI-CNR, otherwise, the stop Garibaldi V1 or Pratole/Parcheggio, (both five minutes walking). Tickets are on sale within the airport, railstation, tabacchi shop or kiosk. Timetables are here.
